THE POLICE MEDAL FOR GALLANTRY

The 24 Battalion Border Security Force, was deployed in highly Naxal infested areas of Kanker, Chhattisgarh in the year 2014.

On 23rd April, Company Operating Base (COB) Kaleshwar received an information that a group of hard core Naxals, armed with automatic weapons will visit the 'Mela', the annual fair around the 'Shaktipeeth', in the foot hills of Rowghat.

The BSF operations party did their homework and laid their cordon around mela. The raid party entered into Mela clandestinely with extreme caution.

After much effort, the raid party could spot a group of people with suspicious bearing. When they were challenged/ stopped for questioning, one of them trained his pistol, on the BSF ops team. The Naxal cocked his pistol and was ready to fire. Sensing the imminent fire fight and corresponding chaos resulting to collateral damage, Sub Inspector (now Inspector) Sushil Kumar Pandey sprung into action and single handed over powered the Naxal and snatched the loaded pistol, which was US made, filled with 08 Rounds of 7.65mm caliber.

The extraordinary courage and gallant action shown by Sub Inspector (Now Inspector) Sushil Kumar Pandey not only let to the apprehension of hard core armed Naxal but also saved the precious lives of own troops as well as civilians.

In recognition of his conspicuous gallant action, presence of mind and devotion to duty exhibited during said operation, Sub Inspector (Now Inspector) Sushil Kumar Pandey has been awarded Police Medal for Gallantry.
